CARDWELL HILL CELLARS PINOT NOIR ROSE WILLAMETTE VALLEY, OREGON

A bright cranberry color, this is fruity and dry, simple and ready to drink immediately. It brings some slightly bitter tannins into the finish.

CEPA 21 HITO ROSADO TEMPRANILLO 2016 RIBERA DEL DUERO, SPAIN

Hito 2015 stands out for its floral notes, this time expressed together with fresh notes of red fruits, quite characteristic from this wine.

The aromatic intensity without losing its subtlety is one of the characteristics that define a wine during tasting. The wine is lively and fresh with a sweet passing with a balanced acidity.

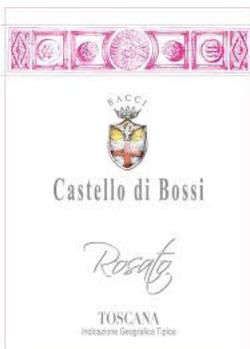

DOMAINE LAFAGE MIRAFLORS 2016 LANGUEDOC ROUSSILLON, FRANCE

Located just outside the city of Perpignan, Jean Marc Lafage is producing some of the greatest cost to quality values in the whole south of France. The Miralfors is a blend of 70% Mourvedre and 30% Grenache Gris. It is fresh and complex with lots of strawberry, floral notes and mineral tones.

ARCA NOVA VINHO VERDE ROSE 2016 MINHO, PORTUGAL

The 2014 Arca Nova Vinho Verde Rose is made from the Espadeiro grape. It begins with a fresh, fruity aroma full of strawberry, raspberry and lime that smells like summer. The fresh and fruity theme continues when tasting this super refreshing wine that also has a slight fizz in the mouth.

CASTELLO DI BOSSI ROSATO 2015 TOSCANA, ITALY

Sourced from the Corbaia vineyard, which was planted more than 40 years ago to 70% Sangiovese and 30% Cabernet Sauvignon. Castello di Bossi Rosato bears resemblance to the rosé wines of southern France. On the nose, however, it immediately asserts its Italian heritage with aromas of dusty earth and Mediterranean herbs layered over fresh cherries and tart cranberry.

CAVE SAINT VERNY COTES D'Auvergne LE PINOT NOIR ROSE 2015 LOIRE, FRANCE

A fragrant rose with aromas of strawberries and cherry. This delicate wine has nuanced flavors of strawberries, raspberries, and a touch of spice. It finishes soft with a palate cleansing crispness that is refreshing.
